

How to Style Your Greenhouse

AS A LUXE GARDEN ROOM & ENTERTAINING SPACE

A Yoderbilt greenhouse goes beyond growing produce and florals, it's a space that changes the rhythm of your home. By blending the beauty of a working garden with the elegance of a high-end lounge, you can create a luxe garden room that serves as a stunning backdrop for any winter gathering.

AT A GLANCE

Unique Ambience

Experience the magic of dining in a captivating winter haven surrounded by lush greenery.

Garden-to-Table

Serve seasonal menus featuring fresh ingredients inspired directly by your greenhouse harvest.

Versatile Hosting

Host a range of events, from cozy winter retreats to vibrant, garden-inspired celebrations.

The Greenhouse as Your Creative Canvas

Your Yoderbilt is a multi-functional space that bridges the gap between nature and luxury.

The DIY Studio

Use the natural light and sturdy frame to host botanical craft nights, such as making DIY garlands with dried orange slices and eucalyptus, aging terracotta pots, or painting pumpkins in the fall.

The Intimate Lounge

Move beyond traditional gardening by creating a space for relaxation with comfortable seating and layered textures like burlap and linen.

A Sanctuary for Color

Use the controlled environment to cultivate vibrant geraniums in shades of pink, purple, and white, creating a beautiful tapestry for your events.

Tips for the Garden Room Host

Become the “Hostess with the Mostess” with thoughtful touches that make the most of the unique greenhouse setting.

Layer Your Lighting

String twinkling fairy lights across the frame or create a magical canopy above the dining area to set the mood.

Welcome Your Guests

Line your walkway with luminaries for a magical touch the moment friends arrive.

Create Visual Levels

Use a variety of heights by placing tall candlesticks on tables and hanging ornaments or plants at varying levels.

The Elegant Table

Incorporate personalized touches like monogrammed cloth napkins and custom menu cards to make every guest feel special.

Curating a Garden-to-Table Menu

Embrace the spirit of whatever season you find yourself in by featuring fresh, seasonal ingredients grown right in your greenhouse.

Signature Sips

Offer beverages infused with your garden bounty, such as water with fresh rosemary and cranberries.

Seasonal Starters

Welcome guests with fresh bread and homemade herb butter featuring greenhouse herbs.

Harvest Mains

Roast your cool-weather harvest, such as beets and parsnips, alongside your favorite protein.

Sweet Endings

Finish with garden-inspired treats like carrot cupcakes or raspberry macarons for a bright and unforgettable experience.

PRO-TIP

Natural Guest Comfort: Growing geraniums in your entertaining space provides a natural mosquito repellent, keeping your guests comfortable.

A Space to Make Your Own

Ultimately, your Yoderbilt is a canvas for your lifestyle. Whether you use it as a quiet morning sanctuary, a bustling DIY workshop, or a venue for elegant garden-to-table dinners, it is a space designed for you to make your own. There are no rigid rules—only the opportunity to use the greenhouse in whatever way feels right for you.

ENJOY MORE

lifestyle guides & inspiration

all at Yoderbilt.com

Yoderbilt
EST. GREENHOUSES 2011